AND FEAST ON SHAD

Five Hundred Business Men Attend Board of Trade Outing at Chesapeake Beach.

BASE BALL GAME PLAYED, BUT SCORE IS IN DOUBT

Elaborate Program Provided for Members of Organization at Twentieth Annual "Day Off."

For twenty years members of the Vashington Board of Trade have set side one day in every 365 on which to old an outing at one of the Potomac iver resorts. In that time many sucessful outings have been held, but it is safe to say that none has been more enake of the Board of Trade held yesterday at Chesapeake Beach. There were present at the shad bake a number of CUNO H. RUDOLPH.

ar outing in the history of the organiza tion, and at the conclusion of the day's program they declared the affair had viously.

Heretofore a boat trip on the Potomac has been a feature of every Board of Trade outing, but yesterday a train ride was substituted for the first time. The first trainload of picnickers reached the beach on a special train about 11:30 o'clock in the forenoon and immediately the fun started. There were about 250 members and guests in the advance guard. A train which reached the beach about 3 o'clock in the afternoon brought about 250 more.

as staged on a tall grass "diam istance from the resort. It was dif from any held heretofore at ard of Trade outing, for from the be-sing the game was burlesqued. The slar team chose the name "Mutt and of for the day, and, instead of wear-the regular suits, made its appearance the regular suits, made us appearance to field in clown costumes of various and many colors.

Call Themselves Nationals. The other team selected the name o

EDWIN R. BROOKS.

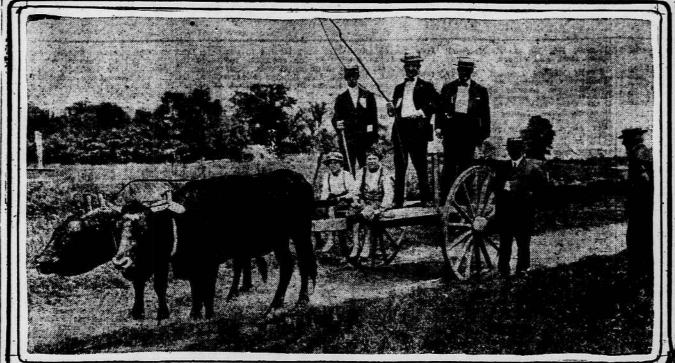

name of some member of the Washington "Nick" Altrock, the clown of the latter organization, was on hand to umpire the game. Charles P. Ravenburg attempted to keep a box score at the outset of the game. But when "Nick" Altrock quit the job of umpiring to pitch for both teams he gave it up as a hopeless task. The line-up at the beginning of the contest

Somewhere about the sixth inning Chairman "Ed" Brooks of the arrangements committee announced that dim would be served in a few minutes, a would be served in a few minutes, and players and spectators deserted the ball field forthwith. Some one had the courage to declare that the "Mutt and Jeffs" had won by a score of 4 to 1, and as there were no protests from the other team, the declaration was accepted as of-

MERCHANTS FROLIC BOARD OF TRADE MEMBERS THROW ASIDE BUSINESS CARES FOR TO HONOR MEMORY A DAY OF FUN AT CHESAPEAKE BEACH.

Upper: Louis C. Wilson takes some friends for an ox cart ride, Lower: The "Mutt and Jeffs," victors in the base ball game.

RICHARD L. CONNER.

Escorted by Band.

When the second trainload of Board of Fraders reached the beach the band and about 100 of the advance guard of pic-nickers escorted the late arrivals to the dining pavilion. The planked shad feast, table with the officers and directors of the board were Engineer Commissioner Col. Chester Harding, Otto Praeger, city postmaster: Ben Prince, assessor of taxes; William F. Gude and Capt. James F. Oyster, president and former presi-dent, respectively, of the Chamber of Commerce Representative J. Henry dent, respectively, of the Chamber of Commerce. Representative J. Henry Small of North Carolina also was a

It was a dinner that will long be remembered. There was an abundance of luscious planked shad and shad roe, clam chowder and other good things that are deemed essential at any Board of Trade dinner. While the members and their guests were enjoying themselves to their while the members to their guests were enjoying themselves to their which tas been called the constitution of the been called the constitution of the dinner the athletic events were started. The judges for the payment of the expenses of the were Engineer Commissioner Harding, William F. Gude, J. Harry Cunningham, William F. Gude, J.

Mexican potato race, in which there were nearly twenty contestants. It difthat the potatoes were carried on the end of sharp sticks instead of on spoons.

The unusually large number of contestants necessitated the running of three heats and a final before the winner could be declared.

heats and a final before the winner
be declared.

President Rudolph presented the prizes to the successful contestants in the athletic events at the dancing pavillion.
He also drew from a hat a number to Walter Brown held the "lucky" ticket, for the outing having been numbered.
Walted Brown held the "lucky" ticket,
No. 187, and received a silver-handled silk umbrella as a prize. First and second consolation prizes, consisting of a silver-mounted decanter and six glasses and a large character doll, were presented to J. D. Garman and J. H. Brewer, holders of tickets Nos. 558 and 399, re-hearts' content, Theodore M. Judd and members of a committee of which he was chairman distributed a wonderful assortment of souvenirs, consisting of lead pencils, fly swatters, match boxes, chewing gum, paper hats, miniature bottles of ketchup and liquids of a stronger character. J. Harry Cunningham led the singing of popular airs while the meal was in progress. Instrumental music was furnished by the United States Soldiers' Home Eand. holders of tickets Nos. 558 and 399, respectively.

While the presentation of prizes were being made Chairman Edward J. Murphy and members of the dinner committee superintended the serving of a buffet lunch on the board walk, the events of the afternoon having whetted the appetites of those who ate dinner early in the day. Home Band.

At the conclusion of the feast the picnickers scattered about the grounds and amused themselves as they saw fit until the continuation of the regular program later in the day. Many tried their luck at the paddle wheels and games of chance along the boardwalk, while others went in bathing. T. A. Wickersham, manager of Chesapeake Beach, threw the bathhouses open to the disposal of all who desired to take a plunge.

tee superintended the serving of a buffet lunch on the board walk, the events of the afternoon having whetted the appetites of those who ate dinner early in the day.

Board Trains for Home.

At 7:30 the picnickers boarded the train and returned home.

At 6:30 the picnickers boarded the train and returned home.

The success of the outing was due to the hard work which had been done for many weeks prior to yesterday by the arrangements committee, of which Edwin R. Brooks was chairman. Other members of the committee were Odell S. Smith, vice chairman: Richard L. Conner, secretary; Clarence R. Ahalt, Harry Allsecretary; Clarence R. Ahalt, Harry Allmond, H. Clifford Bangs, Stacy H. Briant, Roy S. Brooks, Edwin Callow, William E. Burns, Charles D. Church, Charles F. Crane, J. Harry Cunningham, H. Clarence Duffey, William G. Galliher, E. Hayden Duffey, William G. Gainner, E. Hayden-Ghbs, Frank E. Ghbson, C. J. Gockeler, H. C. Grove, George P. Hales, Theodore M. Judd, Walter H. Klopfer, J. Edward Lewis, George H. Markward, Robert Mc-Murray, E. J. Murphy, James L. Owens, Herman C. Rakemann, Charles P. Ravenburg, E. C. Robinson, William A. Rogers, Cuno H. Rudolph, George C. Schafer, Edwin K. Staley, William H. Singleton, Otney W. Stratton, Charles J. Waters, M. A. Weller, Fred J. White, F. P. Wilcox and Bert V. Wolfe.

and Bert V. Wolfe.

An elaborate program was prepared for the outing under the guidance of a printing committee, headed by Odell S. Smith. It consisted of a thirty-six-page booklet, illustrated with a number of caricatures drawn by J. Harry Cunningham, a director of the Board of Trade. At the front of the program was the following announcement:

"Within the recollection of many now living Washington has grown from an undeveloped straggling town, with unpaved streets and avenues, unimproved park spaces and lots, into the city we now see, beautiful and with the promise of grandeur beatiting the National Capital and far beyond what would ever have been dreamed of otherwise, it has been deemed but just that the United States

"Within the recollection of many now living Washington has grown from an undeveloped straggling town, with unpaved streets and avenues, unimproved park spaces and lots, into the city we now see, beautiful and with the promise of grandeur beatiting the National Capital and far beyond what would ever have been dreamed of otherwise, it has been deemed but just that the United States

SPRING RESORTS.

Centipede race, four men to team—Dr. G. W. Brace, Fred J. White, George Schafer and George Markward, won (box of fifty cigars each); Bert V. Wolfe, W. G. Galliher, Cleveland Skinker and Three-legged race, two men to team—George Howard and Ottney Stratton, won (order for re-finishing floor and smoker's cabinet); Charles Ra-vensberg and George P. Hales, second; (fifty Ha-vensberg and George P. Hales, second; (fifty Havanan cigars each).

Leap-frog race, two men to team—C. T. Claggett and F. A. Bright, won (five-dollar order for eut flowers each); J. L. Lacey and George Hugley, second (leather-covered flask each).

Mexican potato race, for guests only—E. T.
Love, won (order for five-dollar palm); F. L.
Fisher, second (carving set); L. L. Dougherty; third (silver match box).

Fat men's race (200 pounds or more)—Bruce S.
Branson, won (silver-mounted decanter); R. G.
Rankin, second (gold fountain pen); W. H. Lanham, third (case watch).

Gymkana race (open to men forty years or more)—A. L. Schafer, won (pair mahogany candlesticks); Arthur M. Poynton, second (three-dolilar order for flowers); J. J. Hass, third (hygrometer).

HARPERS FERRY, W. VA.

SPRING RESORTS. HARPERS FERRY, W. VA.

SCHOOLS OF DISTRICT

Surgeon General Braisted Believes They Should Be Given Employment.

favored are: Abolition of grade crossings and placing overhead wires underground; completion of the sewerage and sewage disposal systems; widening and deepening the channel of the river and reclamation of the Anacostia flats; preparation and enactment of the code of law for the District; furthering the park commission plans for the future development and beautification of Washington; increase and filtration of our water supply; fireproof buildings for public schools and approval of the maintenance of National Guards throughout the country and of an armory building for our District National Guard.

Trained nurses should be employed in the schools of the District of Columbia and their employment should be a part of the municipal policy of the city, said tional Guard.

"The board has consistently stood for the municipal policy of the city, said surgeon General W. C. Braisted, U. S. N., resterday in the course of his address to postrict, numbering at present over 1,200 and it is the oldest organization standing for the interests of the entire District, having been organized and incorporated in 1889."

The program was opened with prayer by Rev. G. O. Little of the Central Presbyterian Church, who was followed by is none for which by nature and instinct you are better qualified," he said, "none promises greater reward in the satisfac promises greater reward in the satisfaction that comes from a life spent in doing for one's fellow-men and the feeling that one has lived to some purpose, and that one's existence on this earth has not been simply a time of waiting and abiding, but that we have each made some useful contribution for the good of our fellow-man; that we have been helpful, uplifting and sustaining factors in the great drama of life."

The speaker outlined the trials and different contribution for the good of the great drama of life."

Rev. I. F. Hankins of Quinton, N. J., has accepted the call to the Baptist Church in Havre de Grace, Md.

"Institutional work," he said, "will be the field chosen by a number of you. The possibilities of improvement here are unlimited, and a rather recent awakening to the imperfections of existing conditions has led to a general intensive study of methods of efficient and economical hospital management. The results of this study aiready indicate that an indefinite amount of knowledge is yet to be gained before the subject is exhausted. definite amount of knowledge is yet to be gained before the subject is exhausted.

Problems Yet to Be Solved.

"Among the problems yet to be solved may mention those of service, organisation and discipline of employes, ac counting systems, hospital design and equipment, the purchase, preparation and serving of food, economy and waste of supplies, also lighting, heating and venparticularly interested me, has been in connection with the employment of trained nurses in the public schools, as has been so successfully inaugurated in New York, and which should be a part of our municipal policy in Washington. This work has great possibilities for good in the health and welfare of our children, and is worthy of your consideration.'

Wishes the Class Success.

In conclusion the surgeon general wished the graduates success, expressing his hope that "the years to come will be full of happiness and satisfaction beyond your fondest hopes."

Advisory board—Rev. Dr. Randolph H. Mrs. Mabel H. Kirk has been appointed by the pointed psychologist of the Essex county Shepard, Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, am- (N. J.) courts. Surgeon General Braisted. The graduates were presented by Dr. F. A. Swartwout, and the degrees were conferred by A. A. Birney, president of the board of trustees. Following the exercises the graduate nurses held an impromptu reception.

Commends the Vocation.

Of all of the vocations open to women, Surgeon General Braisted said, there was none more worthy than nursing. "There is none for which by nature and instinct satisfaction beyond your fondest hopes Chileans to Tour United States.

YOU CANNOT BE TOO PARTICULAR IN SELECTING YOUR DENTIST.

He Should Possess Skill, Experience, Reputation, Gentleness and Resourcefulness.

A combination only possessed by very few dentists. Our skill is admitted and vouched for by hundreds of our clients in Washington and near Washington. Our experience covers a period of 20 years' active practice-always busy. Our reputation for good work and fair dealing has never been questioned.

Gentleness is one of the cardinal features at this office. Our resourcefulness has been shown in handling successfully some of the most difficult and unusual dental operations. OUR PRICES ARE VERY REASONABLE.

My Anchor Suction Teeth They Never $5 a Set Gold Crowns, Bridgework,

$3, $4 and $5. Fillings, 50c.

DR. WHITE, PAINLESS, DENTIST, 407 Seventh Street N.W.

Opposite Woolworth's 5c and 10c Store. Hours: 8:30 to 6; Sundays, 10 A.M. to 1 P.M. Open Wed. and Sat. Evenings Until 8 O'Clock. Main 19.

OF SOUTHERN DEAD

Monument to Confederate Soldiers to Be Unveiled in Arlington June 4.

VETERANS OF UNION ARMY TO ATTEND CEREMONIES

President Wilson Among the Invited Guests-Thousands Expected of the monument, which has been erected through the efforts of the Arilington Conderate Memorial Association, will be attended by President Wilson, Gen. Ben-nett Young, commander of the United Confederate Veterans; Gen. G. W. Gard-ner, commander-in-chief of the Grand ner, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic; Col. Hilary A. Herbert, former Secretary of the Navy and chairman of the executive commit-tee of the Arlington Confederate Memorial tee of the Arlington Confederate Memorial Association; Mrs. Daley McLaurin Stevens, president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and Col. Robert E. Lee, grandson of Gen. Lee. The ceremonies will be witnessed by thousands of visitors from all parts of the south, representing the Confederate Veterans' Association, the Bons of Confederate Veterans and the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Among the organizations that are expected to attend in a body are the Confederate Veterans Camps of Alexandria and Baltimore, and the Old Guard of Baltimore. Members of the Benate and House of Representatives have been invited to be present and 450 acceptances have been received.

Message From Gen. Torrance.

Mrs. Drury Conway Ludlow, chairman of the invitation committee, has received a letter from Gen. Eli Torrance, former mander-in-chief of the Grand Army present, owing to previous engagements. His letter concluded as follows:

His letter concluded as follows:

"However, whether present or absent. I will be in happy accord with you and those associated with you in the consummation of your efforts to give suitable visible expression of your purpose to honor in perpetuity the soldierly qualities, character and sacrifices of the Confederate soldier. If I am denied the pleasure of participating in the solemn, tender and inspiring ceremonies, will you not grant me the privilege, as a soldier of the Union and a friend of the Confederate, of placing a flower upon the graves of the dead.

"More than a year ago, in company with Gen. Herbert, I visited Arlington, and for the first time stood among the graves of the Confederate dead. On our way back to the city I said that I hoped the time might come when I could place a flower upon each grave, and if some one will see that my wish is granted it will be a comfort to me."

Committees in Charge.

Committees in Charge. The committees which have worked to make the unveiling ceremonies a Executive-Col. Hilary A. Herbert chairman; Mrs. Marion Butler, vice Mrs. Drury Conway Ludlow, recording secretary; Mrs. William Oscar Roome, secretary; Mrs. William Oscar Roome, correspon ing secretary; Judge Seth

Shepard, Capt. John M. Hickey. Abner
H. Ferguson, Mrs. Magnus S. Thompson, Mrs. Rust Smith, Mrs. James E.
Mulcare, Mrs. Archibald Young, Mrs.
B. Claughton West, Miss Mary R. Wilcox, Mrs. Jennie L. Munroe, Mrs. Leonard G. Hoffman, Mrs. Marcus J. Wright,
Mrs. Lindley L. Lomax, Mrs. William
Anthony Wayne, Miss Fannie W.
Weeks.
Advisory board—Rev. Dr. Randelph H.

bassador to Italy; J. J. Darlington, Gen. Marcus J. Wright, J. T. Callahan, Dr. Thomas M. Owen, Montgomery, Ala, Program—Mrs. Marion Butier, chair-man; J. J. Darlington, Mrs. Magnus man; J. J. Darlington, Mrs. Magnus Thompson, Charles J. Faulkner. Mrs. Marcus Wright, Miss Mary Wilcox, Mrs. Wayne.

Transportation — Wallace Streater, chairman; Mr. Ferguson.
Press-Claude N. Bennett, chairman; Mrs. Wallace Streater, Mrs. Young, Gen. Francis M. Cockrell.
Stands-Capt. J. W. Hickey, chairman; Wallace Streater, Miss Weeks, A. C. Weeks.
Badges-Mrs. J. E. Mulcare, chairman;

Weeks.

Badges—Mrs. J. E. Mulcare, chairman;
Mrs. West, Mrs. Munroe.

Invitations—Mrs. D. C. Ludiow, chairman;
Mrs. Lillian Pike Roome, Judge
Seth Shepard.

Welcome—Mr. Callahan, chairman.
Decorations—Mrs. L. G. Hoffman, chairman.

Reception Announced.

The chairman of the committee or program has announced that a reception will be given June 4 at 9 p.m. it the Pan-American Union building by the Arlington Confederate Monument Association and the Secretary of State, Guests—Thousands Expected to Gather.

Arlington national cemetery will be the scene of a great gathering and demonstration June 4, when the monument erected to the Confederate dead who are burled there will be unveiled in the presence and with the help of many of the men who fought in the ranks of the blue.

The exercises incident to the unveiling of the monument, which has been erected through the efforts of the Arlington Content of the content of the consultation and the Secretary of State, in honor of Sir Moses Ezekiel, the sculptor of the monument; Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, the president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman of the committee on monument design, and to the former presidents of the committee on monument and the Secretary of State, in honor of Sir Moses Ezekiel, the sculptor of the monument; Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, the president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman of the committee on monument design, and to the former presidents of the organization, under whose administrations the monument derson, ars. Jennie Faulkner McSherry and Mrs. Alexander B. White.

Sir Moses Ezekiel, the foundation of the would be confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman of the committee on monument design, and to the former areal of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman of the committee on monument design, and to the former areal of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman of the committee on monument design, and to the former areal of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman of the committee on monument design, and to the former areal of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman of the committee on monument design, and to the former burled the monument design of the committee on monument design of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cornella Branch Stone, chairman

Col. Herbert will give a buffet lunch con June 4 before the unveiling exerbers of the executive committee, the the Confederacy, Mrs. Daisy McLaurin the Confederacy, Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens; the members of the monument board and ex-president generals of the daughters.

The Southern Society of Washington probably will give a reception and dance the evening of June 5 at the Raleigh Hotel in honor of Mrs. Stevens and other officers of the daughters. A special feature of this occasion will be dancing by the younger contingent, who will attend the unveiling.

REPAIRS MANY LIGHTS.

Steamer Maple Returns From Tour of Lower River and Bay.

From an inspection trip among the lighthouse steamer Maple arrived in ort yesterday and is lying at the lighthouse service wharf in the lower end of the harbor. The vessel will of the Republic, to whom an invitation probably leave here today for buoy work on the Chesapeake en route to Baltimore. While in the lower river a number of lights were found by the School Commencement.

"As You Like It" was presented by the 1914 graduates of the department of exthe school, 1906 Florida avenue northmencement week exercises. The cast in McCullough, Miss Fergusson, Miss Medlin, Miss Pendleton, Miss Peck, Miss Schneider, Miss Neely, Miss Banks, Miss Weigel, Miss Harman, Miss May, Miss Mitchell, Miss L. Bailey, Miss McKenzie. Miss Dorothy Warren, Miss McKenzie.
Miss Dorothy Warren, Miss Lorraine
Hopper, Miss Frances Wright and Miss Marie Smith.
Music was furnished by Miss Billings and Miss Hewitt.

Shoes of Today

Shoes for every use, outdoors or indoors, for business dress, play-for Men, Women, Boys, Girls, Children.

"Banister" Shoes for Men, 6.50 to 9.00. "Ground Gripper" Walking Shoes for Men and Women, remarkable for comfort, and for helping "flat foot."

Hosiery for Men and Women-beautiful weaves and colors for summer-silk and lisle, 50c up.

Arthur Burt Co., 1343 F

Experienced Advertisers Prefer THE STAR